ORAL JUDGMENT

Heard parties.

2. This Court by Order dated 14th July, 2000, was pleased to admit the Civil Revision Application and grant ad interim relief in terms of prayer clause (b). Without going into the merits of the matter, in my opinion, the interests of justice can be met if the said interim relief is continued for a further period of two months and the appeal which is pending, from which the Civil Revision Application has arisen is directed to be disposed of within two months from today. In the light of that, the following Order:-

The interim relief granted by the Order of this Court to continue for a further period of two months. The Appellate Court is directed to dispose of the appeal within two months from today. In the event there is no Presiding Judge for the Court to which the matter is allotted, the learned District Judge to allot the matter to some other Addl. District Judge, or hear the matter himself, but at any rate the appeal to be disposed of within two months from today.

With the above direction, the Civil Revision Application disposed of. Office to return the records to the Appellate Court.
